

EARL OF JURA

AN T-IARLA DIURACH

TRADITIONAL SCOTTISH SONG

Em D Em G D Em D Em

5 G B7 Em Em D Em

9 Em B7 Em D Em G D

14 Em D Em G B7 Em D Em

A young woman tells of her love for the Earl Jura. She declares that if the Earl is unfaithful she wants the soil of Jura to cover her.

X: 1

T: The Earl Of Jura

M: 3/4

L: 1/8

K: Emin

| B BA | B2 EG FE | E4 GA | B2 AG AB | g2 fg eB |

d2 eA A<G | G3 A BA | B2 EG FE | E4 Bd |

e2 Bg fg | e3 G Bd | e2 B2 AG | F3 E GA |

B2 AG AB | g2 fg eB | d2 eA A<G | G3 B BA | B2 EG FE | E3 |

Performance Note:

When played as instrumental, Scottish fiddlers will often employ the "Scottish Snap" or at least use many dotted eighth-sixteenth note pairs throughout.

The transcription above is notated as the tune might be sung.

The Earl of Jura is often performed as an air. This style frees the performer to be as expressive as possible.